Goals

Provide a forum for purchasers where they can share their problems, solutions, research and product specifications.

Some members may want to use the membership network to find partners for group purchases.

Goals

Speak as one voice to suppliers

Give purchasers leverage to get the life cycle information they need to make informed purchases.

Give manufacturers a single message providing them with a standard for product data delivery.

Membership

A large diverse membership of consumers who specify, purchase, and use manufactured products including, but not limited to:

- Building Materials
- Office Products
- Cleaning Products
- Automobiles
- Furnishings

Life Cycle Assessment is a rapidly changing field. As a result, making requests for LCA information is complicated. The SPPC, with the support of its advisory committee of LCA experts, has been developing a set of criteria for life cycle data and LCA results that will be acceptable according to the terms of the membership, as well as being reasonable within the scope of the tools currently available to manufacturers. As the SPPC timeline suggests, the function of the organization's website will be developing, as well as the tools it provides to both manufacturers and members. In order to meet the stipulations of the Coalition's membership, manufacturers will need to provide an Express Warranty that they have provided the requested data in good faith.

Does your organization buy environmentally or socially responsible products and services? Do you believe that buying sustainable products cast a vote for a better future?

If so, the Sustainable Products Purchasers Coalition would like to invite you to join our new consortium of businesses, government agencies and non-profit organization that want to use their purchasing power to make a difference. We represent large and small organization, united by a simple idea: we need to gather to make our votes count in the market place.

Joining the Sustainable Products Purchasers Coalition is a critical step in developing the kinds of products we need for a sustainable future.

Yes, I want to join the coalition to transform the marketplace to develop, produce and consume sustainable products.
